

Environmental, Health and Safety Management Policy

Samsung Electronics is committed to bringing a sustainable society to life in line with its management principles that place priority on the environment, health and safety, and provides a safe and healthy environment for employees, partners and all other visitors who enter the premises.

Environmental Management Policy

1. The company complies with applicable environmental regulations and international conventions, and proactively manages potential risks by making improvements to its environmental management system and conducting ongoing monitoring as well as training.
2. The company strengthens the implementation of energy savings and carbon neutrality in response to climate change, and strives to promote water conservation and biodiversity in collaboration with local communities.
3. The company evaluates the environmental impacts of a product across its entire lifecycle, and minimizes the environmental burden through resource circularity improvement and pollutant reduction.

Health and Safety Management Policy

1. The company complies with applicable health and safety regulations and international conventions, and faithfully implements stringent internal standards by setting targets that exceed legal requirements.
2. The company cultivates a mature safety culture that encourages open communication and active employee participation, and drives continuous improvement in its health and safety management system to proactively manage potential risks.
3. The company continuously identifies and improves hazards and risks to prevent serious accidents in order to realize a safe and healthy workplace, and strives to promote employee health.

The company discloses Environmental, Health and Safety management performance and related information to foster transparent communication with members and stakeholders, and puts sustainable partnerships into practice for mutual growth by actively supporting to enhance partners' capabilities.

February 13, 2026

CSO of Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd.

DX CSO Junhwa Lee

DS CSO Tae yang Yoon